Alan Walker x Conor Maynard, Believers

they said i needed something in my life said i was doing dumb shit all the time cause broken dreams won't pay your bills at all i heard it was the wrong things i get rich i blame it on the monsters in my mind with stories form outside these prison walls

believers
let's raise a toast
enjoy the show
believers
so incomplete
yet all we need
believers
let's raise a toast

i said i woud;n't run but i am terrified headed for the sun but i am scared of heights so yo and me go fallinh through the dark you told me be someone that i like instead of being someone in their eyes your battle scars make you look like a star

let's raise a toast
believers
so incomplete
believers
let's raise a toast
enjoy the show
