

Alana Grace, Break The Silence

(Break it, break it, break it, break it, break the silence)
Walls are closing in on me,
Closing fast they're smothering
Edge of darkness at my feet,
Feeling like I'm falling out of a dream
Questioning my reason's why
I feel we should say goodbye
There's only one thing I can do
To fix the situation that we're going through
I guess I got to be the one to
Break it, break it, break it, break it, Break the silence
And just take it, take it, take it, Take a moment
To tell me what you see
We're falling apart, you can't deny it
Before I lose my sanity
Just break it, break it, break it, break it, Break the silence
Between you and me
Stranded going nowhere fast, isolated in the past
Wanting out, but scared to move
To fix the situation that we're going through
I guess I got to be the one to
Break it, break it, break it, break it, Break the silence
And just take it, take it, take it, Take a moment
To tell me what you see
We're falling apart, you can't deny it
Before I lose my sanity
Between you and me
Break it, break it, break it, break it, Break the silence (x2)
Break it, break it, break it, break it, Break the silence
And just take it, take it, take it, Take a moment
To tell me what you see
We're falling apart, you can't deny it
Before I lose my sanity
And just take it, take it, take it, Take a moment
To tell me what you see
We're falling apart, you can't deny it
Before I lose my sanity
Between you and me
