

Alana Grace, Goodbye Lost Innocence

I used to think when I was young I would be someone.
I'd have it all figured out with no shades of gray.
Could someone please just tell me what went wrong?
This pocket full of hope is almost gone.
Been throwing it away since I was I young.
Can't hold on.

[Chorus:]

Nothing is perfect.
Nothing is permanent.
Goodbye lost innocence.
It's hard to let you go.
So hard to let you go.
So hard to let you go.
When I find clarity.
Its light's out of focus.
I wanna see the world again
But with eyes wide open.
Could someone please just tell me what went wrong?
This pocket full of hope is almost gone.
Been throwing it away since I was I young.
Can't hold on.

[Chorus:]

Nothing is perfect.
Nothing is permanent.
Goodbye lost innocence.
It's hard to let you go.
So hard to let you go.
So hard to let you go.

[Chorus:]

Nothing is perfect.
Nothing is permanent.
Goodbye lost innocence.
It's hard to let you go.
So hard to let you go.

[Chorus:]

Nothing is perfect.
Nothing is permanent.
Goodbye lost innocence.
It's hard to let you go.
So hard to let you go.
So hard to let you go
