Alanis Morissette, So Pure (Live)

You're from New York, you are so relevant You reduce me to cosmic tears Luminous more so than most anyone, unapologetically alive Knot in my stomach and lump in my throat Love you when you dance, when you freestyle in trance So pure such an expression Love you when you dance, when you freestyle in trance So pure such an expression Supposed former infatuation junkie I sink three pointers and you wax poetically Love you when you dance, when you freestyle in trance So pure such an expression Love you when you dance, when you freestyle in trance So pure such an expression Let's grease the wheel over tea Let's discuss things in confidence Let's be outspoken, let's be ridiculous Let's solve the world's problems Love you when you dance, when you freestyle in trance So pure such an expression Love you when you dance, when you freestyle in trance So pure such an expression
