Alanis Morissette, Superman

I'm lookin' for someone who can made me feel A serious love like Juliet's is real A little impulsive and a boy at heart A little bit shy but he'll be oh so smart

Superman I need a superman

You got a complicated girl like me He's gotta be fair and treat me properly yeah I want him to understand equality You gotta Keep searchin' everywhere in the world You gotta keep lookin' or you'll miss the feelin'

[CHORUS:]

You gotta be tough to make it today who You do it your way and not how they say You'll find him somewhere You gotta be tough to make it today who And never be scared of finding your way to Superman

Should I call him on the telephone Should I go seem him or just stay at home will be different from the other boys if I could find him I'd be overjoyed

Superman where are you Superman Whenever it seems like everything's on the line You gotta keep lookin' or you'll miss the feelin'

[CHORUS]

With all the other boys I never knew what it took to make a choice When he's mine I'm gonna stop all my changin' around now Between the two of us there'll be enough goin' on that's serious I can't wait 'til I can stop all my lookin' around now

I found my Superman I found my Superman

Whenever it seems like everything's on the line you gotta keep lookin' or you'll miss the feelin'

[CHORUS]
