

Alanis Morissette, Ur House

I went to ur house Walked up the stairs
I opened ur door without ringing the bell
Walked down the hall into ur room
Where I could smell u and I
I shouldn't be here without permission
I shouldn't be here
Would u forgive me love
If I danced in ur shower
Would u forgive me love
If I laid in ur bed
Would u forgive me love
If I stayed all efternoon
I took off my clothes put on ur robe
And i went through ur drawers
And i found ur cologne
Went down to the den, found ur cd's
And I played ur Joni
And I shouldn't stay long
U might be home soon
I shouldn't stay long
Would u forgive me love
If I dance in ur shower
Would u forgive me love
If I laid in ur bed
Would u forgive me love
If I stayed all efternoon
I burned ur incense I ran a bath
And I noticed a letter that sat on ur desk
It said: "hello, love
I love u so, love. Meet me at midnight"
And no, it wasn't my writting i'd better go soon
It wasn't my writting...
So forgive me, love
If i cry in ur shower
So forgive me, love
For the salt in ur bed
So forgive me, love
If I cry all afternoon
