Alannah Myles, Do You Really Want to Know Me

Do you really wanna know me? Do you care what's inside? Can you ever really show me? There's no secrets I must hide If I bare my soul, can you accept it all? My darkest corner's safe behind a wall Do you really wanna know me at all? I can't accept the pain My brain screams like a runaway train Trying to keep my heart on track The embers turned to flame and I want you back But I can't trust a memory I can't trust a memory No, I can't trust me Do you really wanna know me? Do you know what makes me smile? Can you ever really promise me? This time it's not a lie I'll believe it's true When you're standin' at my door I'm always here for you And I'll open it once more Do you really wanna know me? Do you really wanna know me at all? Do you really wanna know me? Do you really wanna know me at all? Do you really wanna know me?

Do you really wanna know me at all?
