

Alannah Myles, Song instead of a kiss

Baby this is a song instead of a kiss
For all of you who ache who long for nights like this Song instead of a touch
Darling this is a song instead of a touch
To all of you who wait so long and need so much
It is for those who like to cling
It is for those those I sing
Here is a song instead of a clutch
instead of a moon instead of soothing touch in the afternoon
It is for those who like to cling
It is for those those I sing
Here is a song instead of a clutch
instead of a moon instead of soothing touch in the afternoon
