

Alarm, Tell Me

Alarm

Declaration

Tell Me

And if you know what is the answer

Why don't you tell me

What does it feel like to be set free

And if you've found

What you think you've been looking for

Don't look back Because you won't find nothing anymore

Take a look at the punks

One the run from all the ministers

Collecting for the criminals

And the judges or the blame

It doesn't matter if you're innocent or guilty

Or you've never been given a chance

You will never find an answer

When there's always onre more link in the chain
