Alarm, The, Tell Me (live Kbfh)

Alarm, The
Kbfh Presents
Tell Me (live Kbfh)
And if you know what is the answer
Why dont you tell me
What does it feel like
To be free
What does it feel like

Take a look at the punks
On the run from all the ministers
Collecting for the criminals
And the judges or the blame
If you're innocent or youre guilty
Or youve never been given a chance
You will never find an answer
Theres always, always, always, always
Just one more link to the chain

And if youve found What you think youve been looking for Dont look back Because you wont find nothing anymore Because you wont find nothing

Take a look at the punks
On the run from all the ministers
Collecting for the criminals
And the judges or the blame
If you're innocent or youre guilty
Or youve never been given a chance
You will never find an answer
Theres always, always, always, always
Just one more link to the chain

There's just one more link to the chain (just one, one more link to the chain) Ah take a look at the punks (just one more link to the chain) Take a, take a, take a look (just one more link to the chain) Take just one look

Just one more link to the chain
