

Alastis, By Thy Name

I'd like to see tears on your face
I'd like to feed the hate in your look
I'd like to guess the death in your thoughts,
Don't let the hope's rays flash through your hate!
Children of reason, dogs of hell...
By His name you'll keep a watch on your brother
By His name you'll banish His enemies...

Children of reason, dogs of hell...
By His name...

By His name you'll keep a watch on your brother
By His name you'll banish His enemies...

Accept your destiny, follow your hate!

Harbor of despair,
The hate will overcome!
Free your spirit, seek the truth

Children of reason the "paradise"'s deceived you!
Reveive your spirit's power and follow us
under the right path...

By his pleasure, by our power, we'll be eternal...
Follow your hate!
