Alastis, From The U.W.

Stay close to us and look at the decadent world
Follow us in this unknown who scares you
Find the answers you didn't dare to find
Forget all prejudices, erase all their lies
Dive into the light, comfront the forbidden truth

You, christian, muslim or jew
I defy you god to be more high than you
I defy the love to have won the hate who slaves you
You can be master and worship yourself,
Fight at our side for the return of lost liberties
