

Alastis, Reconversion

the tyrant's messengers have conquered your ancestors trust it's not too late to become converted disown your christian faith and stop epidemic pour the traitor's blood on the death altar...

by dark magic you'll find back peace in your spirit rejoin us on the road of light listen to your ancestors who lure pray our martyrs burned by the inquisition form the kingdom of light where they are they'll protect you against the christian force... prepare to rejoin our holies in the light erect the death altar and kill in good faith the poured blood will calm the lost soul's pain and contribute to the divine justice
