

Alathea, I Will Walk

Crumpled papers on the floor
Failed attempts to put, in words
How I'm so grateful
For what You've done for me
There is nothing I can give
If there is nothing that You need
I come before You
With all You ask of me

CHORUS:

I will walk, I will walk, I will walk
Humbly next to You
There are countless promises,
I have never followed through
All You require
Is all that I can do
