

Albert Collins, Hooked On You

I'm beginnin' to wonder, baby, what's goin' on when I'm not at home
I'm beginnin' to wonder, baby, I know you ain't there all alone
Ev'ry time I have to leave you, woman, I wonder who's takin' my place, an' turnin' you on

I'm beginnin' to wonder, woman, why I worry ev'ryday
I said, I'm beginnin' to wonder, woman, wonder why I feel this way

I be home early Tuesday evenin', better hide your part-time man away

I'm beginnin' to wonder, woman, why we're wasting all this time
I'm beginnin' to wonder, baby, wonder why we didn't see the signs
What we did, we've never forgotten, what we had, we left behind
