

Albert Collins, Robert Cray And Johnny Copeland

(Collins vocals for whole song)

You know the moon is full?
I feel my love coming down
I said the moon is full
I feel my love coming down
You see I met this little girl
I don't think I wanna wanna leave this town

You see all my friends call me crazy
But they just don't know how I feel inside
I said all my friends call me crazy
They just don't know how I feel inside
You see I love this little girl
'Cause she got the little pretty brown eyes
Ah, look out brother Robert!

(Young Bob solo)

I'm gonna take the train in the mornin'
I think I'm gonna go back home
I said gonna catch that train in the morning, y'all
I think I'm gonna go back home
I'm gonna let my little girl know
Ole' a I ain't gonna be gone, I be gone too long

Wait a minute

If I miss that train, dang
I guess I'm gonna have to hitchhike
I said if I miss that train in the morning, y'all
I guess I'm gonna have to hitchhike
I'm gonna let my little girl know
I'll just be gone, be gone overnight
Oh, yeah
