

Albert Hammond, Blue Skies

There are things I could've told you
There's a time and a place
Where my words, would allow me
To say what I want change
Dont let me know know as its happening
Ohhh
Dont let me know what you said
Ohhhhh
There are birds all around me
There were flowers pressed to my face
And in time you will forget me
And I'll try and do the same
Dont let me know know as its happening
Ohhh
Dont let me know what you said
Ohhhhh Ohhhhh Ohhhhh
It's been years since I saw you
But each day I see your face
And in time you will remind me, that I wish were the same
Dont let me know know as its happening
Ohhh
Dont let me know what you said
Ohhhhh Ohhhhh Ohhhhh
