

Albert Hammond, Jr., Victory At Monterey

She's got buttons with their names on it
Those sounds, well they tell you everything
And it all goes back again
Well, and it all goes back again
I said, "Victory at Monterey"
She said, "Won't you come down and play?"
That's sad, you didn't win anything
That's sad, victory at Monterey
Happy, man I got lost in you
Well I'm always, always gonna find you
I'm so glad now that I have you back
Happy, happy
