

Albert Hammond, Moonlight Lady

It was late in the night when I came by an open window
She was satin and lace in the glow of a soft-lit fire
She had secrets to share 'cause she's been everywhere the wind blows
And so deep in her eyes lay the mirror of my desire

Moonlight lady
Come along with me
Leave the dark city lights
It's alright 'cause tonight's on me

Moonlight lady
Come along with me
Leave the dark city lights
It's alright 'cause tonight's on me

And so softly we walked through the streets of the sleeping city
Waking up dreams that lay quiet a million years
And I silently weep at the power of her golden beauty
'cause I knew that we'd have to forget we were ever here

Moonlight lady
Come along with me
Leave the dark city lights
It's alright 'cause tonight's on me

There were beggars and kings in a magical sky
There were wings in the air, and I learned how to fly
There was me, there was you, and then suddenly you were gone

Moonlight lady
Come along with me
Leave the dark city lights
It's alright 'cause tonight's on me

Moo-moo-moo-moonlight lady
Come along with me
Leave the dark city lights
It's alright 'cause tonight's on me

Moo-moo-moo-moo-moonlight lady, yeah
Come along with me
Leave the dark city lights
It's alright 'cause tonight's on me...
