Albert King, Call My Job

Call my job, tell the boss I won't be in Call my job, tell the boss I won't be in Friday, Saturday, Sunday, I must've had too much weekend

Call my job, have someone operate my machine Call my job, have someone operate my machine

You look so good to me this morning, I must've had too much weekend

Hang the hat off the hook, lock the door too, spend my time, making love to you Call my job, tell the boss I won't be in Friday, Saturday, Sunday, I must've had too much weekend
