

Alcazar, Love Life

Can I be the one
To share your love life
To share your love life

You live a life alone and so do I Don't you ever get lonely
and do you wonder why?
May I propose a new solution?
A revolution
for you and me?
Oh

Can I be the one
to share your love life?
(Share your love life)
Can I be the one
to share your love life?
Can I be the one
to share your love life?
(Share your love life)
Can I be the one
to share your love life?

Why don't we share a place
the two of us?
Just a quiet life without much fuss
With our love we'll make the most of it
You must admit
You'll agree
Oh.

Can I be the one

I'm tall and presentable
Well-dressed and clean
With a good sence of humour
Non-smoking
Non-scene
I like walks in the country
A film or a play
A couple of beers
or a glass of Chardonnay

To share your love life
To share your love life

Can I be the one
