

Alcazar, Wonderland

In those days
I had no reasons for griefs and tears
All the actions I took was just for me and myself
Loving was only for fun
Well now those days are gone
I'm in the autumn of my years
And I feel such a void when I'm alone in my bed
And I wake up the very same way

Come to me
Lay down next to me
Keep me company
You put a song in my heart

Come on and take my hand
We're off to wonderland
I hear a symphony
Each time you're here with me
Heavenly
That's what my life could be
Come on and take my hand
We're off to wonderland.

Way back then
I used to chase the rainbow's end
But my paradise found turned into paradise lost
There's always a price to be paid
Well now those days are gone
And when I look back at my life
All the pictures are blurred and all those nights feel like one
And the parties weren't really that fun

Oh, come to me...

Come on and take my hand...

I used to crave attention from every stranger in the night
I used to fear the morning - the early morning light
But when the extacy subsided and the good times went away
You found me there
So stay with me
And keep me company

Come on and
Come on and take my hand...

Take my hand
(Making love was just for fun)
We're off to wonderland
(Now those days are really gone)
I hear a symphony
(I'm in the autumn of my life)
Each time you're here with me
(And when I wake up ... I'm alone in my bed)
Heavenly
(Making love was just for fun)
That's what my life could be
(Now those days are really gone)
Come on and take my hand
(I'm in the autumn of my life)
We're off to wonderland
(And when I wake up ... I'm alone in my bed)

Making love was just for fun

Now those days are really gone
I'm in the autumn of my life
And when I wake up ... I'm alone in my bed
