

Alchemist, Clot

Clot - by my own closed mind poisoned images self imagination - sense of reckoning haluts its gestation attitude and feelings unable to relate the iron barrier my subconscious creates
- clot, CLOT, CLOT, microelectric memories solitarily confined preventing new additions to the archives of my mind confrontation of my lobes to bridge the gap where knowledge flows knowing what I thought is hidden from me - confrontation of my lobes to bridge the stream where knowledge flows
