

Aldo Nova, Under The Gun

See the man ridin' high in the desert near the Rio Grande
He runs for his life, doesn't sleep, doesn't take time to understand
'Cause the girl that he loved went away and ran off with another man
But he followed them both and he shot at the throat
Couldn't stop his hand, so now he's under the gun
He was born and raised and he lived like the son of an honest man
And who would've thought that one day he might gun down another man
But his heart gave away to the gun in his hand, couldn't stop it, no
So now he's gotta run and he's weak from the sun, got nowhere to go
Because he's under the gun

(Under the gun)

Just a fugitive, out on the run, under the gun

(Under the gun)

Never see the setting sun

He's under the gun

Shoot him

Well now he's on the run, 'cause he's under the gun

With nowhere to go

We'll pray for his sister, watch out for the mister

He'll let you know

Because he's under the gun

(Under the gun)

Just a fugitive, out on the run, under the gun

(Under the gun)

Never seen the setting sun

He's under the gun

(Under the gun)

Because he's under the gun

(Under the gun)

'Cause he's under the gun

(Under the gun)

'Cause he's under the gun

(Under the gun)

'Cause he's under the gun

(Under the gun)
