

Alecia Elliott, Ain't No Ordinary Love

(Tommy Lee James/Robin Lerner)

We had something I could never do without
What a brilliant stroke of luck
Heaven's angels came like sirens in the night
Madness hit me like a truck

One look,one touch
And the skies just opened up
Ain't no ordinary love
Lightnin',thunder
And the fateful arrow struck
Ain't no ordinary love

Happiness has got me jumping up for joy
Sweet bliss I'm overcome
Didn't notice I've been walking on thin air
Somehow closer to the sun

One look,one touch
And the skies just opened up
Ain't no ordinary love
Lightnin',thunder
And the fateful arrow struck
Ain't no ordinary love

Such a sweet beautiful thing
A complete awaking
Inspiration everlasting

Stand back,hold on
They don't make'em quite like us
Ain't no ordinary love

It's a extraordinary love
