

Alejandro Escovedo, Always A Friend

Wasn't I always a friend to you?
Wasn't I always a friend to you?
Do you wanna be my friend?
Do you wanna be my friend?
Every once in a while honey let your love show
Every once in a while honey let yourself go
Nobody gets hurt no, nah
Nobody gets hurt
We came here as two, we laid down as one
I don't care if I'm not your only one
What I see in you, you see in me
But if I do you wrong smoke my smoke, drink my wine
Bury my snake skin boots somewhere I'll never find
Still be your lover baby, oh oh, oh oh, oh oh
Wasn't I always a friend to you?
Wasn't I always a friend to you?
Do you wanna be my friend?
Do you wanna be my friend?

Every once in a while honey let yourself go
Every once in a while honey let your love show
Nobody gets hurt no, no
Nobody gets hurt
Well, I could be an astronaut on the wrong side of the moon
Or wrapped up like a baby on a bus under you
Wherever I go you go with me
But if I do you wrong, take the master suite, I'll take the floor
Sleep in late, get your rest, I'll catch up on mine
Still be your lover, baby, oh oh, oh oh, oh oh
Wasn't I always a friend to you?
Wasn't I always a friend to you?
Every once in a while honey let your love show
Every once in a while honey let yourself go, yeah
Nobody gets hurt, it's only love, love, love
Oh oh, oh oh, oh oh
