

Aleksandra Tocka, Love Me

Your pain is my pain
Even if it hurts so bad I'll never forget the day
When we met for the first time
Your eyes your smile
I've dreamt about you all my life
Now you're here
So i can you just love me

love me
love me
love me
how much you can
love me
love me
cause love is the biggest think
love me
love me
love me
how much you can
love me
love me

nowe each piece of my heart beats so loud than i can't hear anything
'bout your wispering
So sweet to me
That you're not leave me
That you care
Together forever

love me
love me
love me
how much you can
love me
love me
cause love is the biggest think
love me
love me
love me
how much you can
love me
love me
