Alesana, Better Luck Next Time, Prince Charming

Shadows dance around me as i race alone I will never rest until she's in my arms

So close and yet so far away...

A simple kiss to bring her back, to make this story end

Not all knights in shining armor can make your dreams come true

He's not quite as charming as he may seem

Come and claim your queen!

The wild beasts are ravenous, they will soon devour you

Dark howls echo better cries but they fall upon deaf ears

Not all knights in shining armor can make your dreams come true

He's not quite as charming as he may seem

Come and claim your queen!

You're Pathetic! What good did you do?!?

She had faith in me, I was her only escape

A most deep and subtle poison welcomes her unblinking eyes to eternal sleep

If i had shown, she would be mine

Who is the fairest of all? Tell me again! Tell me again! You know its me!

A simple kiss to bring her back, to make this story end

Not all knights in shining armor can make your dreams come true

He's not quite as charming as he may seem

We'll make your dreams come true, come and claim your queen!
