

Alessi, I'm Gonna Tell Her Tonight

I feel sometimes confused
Makes me wonder if I'm a fool
Do we ever get to feel secure
It turns me around
And gets me down
Nights by the fire, just for two
Exchanging feelings
You'd think we'd never lose it
Then unexpected complications
We turn our back on it all

Chorus:

I'm gonna tell her tonight
I'm gonna tell her tonight
We've got to look what we've got
It's our lives we're investing
She's something from a dream
She takes my breath away
And the way she says she loves me
In her own way
I'm so confused
I'm afraid that either way I'll lose

(Chorus)

I'm gonna tell her tonight
I'm gonna tell her tonight
We've got to look what we've got
It's our lives we're investing
But when she gives me those eyes
I fall apart, I fall apart

(Chorus)
