

Alessi, Rise Up

A man appears to be strong
Can start out with nothing
And take on the world
A girl can take it all away
And leave him with nothing, with nothing
With nothing to say

Chorus:

Rise up above
And let your heart see again
Rise up above and let
Its your mind, Its your mind
Hard, is going your own way
Youve got to believe in yourself
If you want to be strong
And know that no one is perfect
Weve must be giving, giving
If we want to receive
And let your heart see again
Rise up above and let
Its your mind, its your mind
And then those times
When youre calling out, alone
Youre just a minute away
Youre just a minute away
(Chorus)
Rise Up!
