

Aletheia, Your Holy Name

Today is a new day to worship you Jesus. Your presence I feel and your face I seek. Because you're all that I need. You are so blameless and so pure, So high and holy deliverer. Redemptive blood you shed. Giver of life you led a life so blameless and innocent. And love so enduring your son was sent to give us life and set us free and now this is our victory.

Today I give you glory Lord, your holy name I praise. Upon this solid rock I stand, I stand in awe of you amazed.

My heart is alive and my spirit free because you are in me. You've taken away my sin and shame, and now I worship your name.

You hold me close, You don't let go.
You are my all, You are my all.
