

Alex Band, Live Again

When I was young and able
Bulletproof and running wild
Never felt so stable
I wanna bring me back to life
So I'm building a dream
I'm drawing up the plans
Things are not what they seem
When you're trying to build half a man
But I feel
I feel...
I'm gonna live again
I'm gonna live again
I'm gonna live again
In this steel I'm fire
But there is love behind these eyes
I want to take you higher
Breaking ground now watch me fly
Into the light
You're shining on my soul
My heart deep inside
Is ready to explode
And I feel
I feel...
I'm gonna live again
I'm gonna live again
I'm gonna live again
I could fight any war
Disarm the enemy
But here in your arms
Somehow I'm down on my knees
And I feel
I feel...
I'm gonna live again
I'm gonna live again
I'm gonna live again
