

Alex Band, Wings

I looked in your eyes
I saw your pain
I helped you through
All the way
You looked in my eyes
You saw joy
You helped me fly
Through the sky
But I've seen the sad
I've seen the glad go
Don't run away from it all
And you will grow
You looked in my eyes
I saw a surprise
I helped you through all that pain
Just look at my wings
These beautiful things
I can fly higher
Than an angel can fly
See me soar
Through the sky
Through the clouds
Into the heavens
Just look at my wings
These beautiful things
I can fly higher
Than an angel can fly
Than an angel can fly
Than an angel can fly
