

Alex Harvey, Boston Tea Party

Chorus

Are you going to the party?
Are you going to the boston tea party?

Redcoats in the village
Theres fighting in the streets
The indians and the mountain men, well
They are talking when they meet
The king has said hes gonna put a tax on tea
And thats the reason you all americans drink coffee

Chorus

Fire in the mountains, flames upon the heath
And the president spits out the news
Hes biting on wooden teeth
The children of the colonies
Got a different tale to tell
Im going down to the city
Tell my folks Im doing well

Chorus

Bringing back the buffalo to the long prairie
Bringing back the fishes swimming in the sea
The children of the colonies
Got a different tale to tell
Im going down to the city
Tell my folks Im doing well

Chorus
