

Alex Lloyd, Aliens

So the aliens have landed
They'll be moving through you and i
And as the family disbanded
They dragged the sadness into the light

No more tears and no more pain
Only things to keep you sane
Only fun

And in the distance there's talk now
Everyone wants to go home
I hope you know you're not leaving
For the night has just begun

And if i live to stay a day
Words are left to fade away

And it started
No pain for a rusty boat
Down hearted
No pain for a rusty boat
