

Alex Lloyd, Faraway

Close to the box
Received transmission
One thousand scenes of dramavision
Oh yeah
It's making me laugh, it's making me cry
Blurred red dots when i close my eyes
Oh yeah

You're so far away and i'm still here
You're so far away and i'm still here
Waiting for nothing
Waiting for no one

The damage reports are coming in
The lines are so busy wearing thin
Oh yeah
It's making me laugh, it's making me cry
Blurred red dots when i close my eyes
Oh yeah

Always trying to find a piece of you in someone
Always trying to find something in someone
Nothing left to say but i can't find my way
