

Alex Lloyd, Hello The End

This is the end, my friend,
the end, my friend, the end.
I hope to see you again, my friend,
again, my friend, again.

And I didn't want to hold you back
and I didn't want to see you off now, down the wrong track.

Elusive personality, I think you know as much as me.
No secrets that you're hiding.

Count 4 and we'll begin again, we'll begin again.
This time, release, my friend,
release, my friend, the end.

And I didn't want to hold you back
and I didn't want to see you off now, down the wrong track.

This time, it makes so sense at all,
I'm standing still while others fall.
Keeps shrinking every second.

Hello
The End, the End.

The End.
