Alex Parks, I Remember You

(Parks)

It's raining on the inside
It's racing out the door
I'll stack up all the sandbags of time
Cos I don't wanna lose things anymore
But all I did was fall in to your arms one day
And forever I will pray
But I can't count the times
I've wished for nothing more than you
I remember you
I've remembered you
I'd remember you
I remember you
