

Alex Parks, Maybe Thats What It Takes

Looking back
How did I get here
Chasing circles
Never thought so near
Shaded by the red
Now I want you

I walk this way in my dreams slowly
Far away
Your distant lights on me
I'm shaded by the red

Maybe that's what it takes
For me to be with you
Maybe it's our love saved

Maybe that's why it breaks
And we do the things we do
Maybe that's what it takes

I'll open up
And let you back inside
Don't take your time
Cos I will wish I'd lied
I'll shame you with the red

Maybe that's what it takes
For me to be with you
Maybe it's our love saved

Maybe that's why it breaks
And we do the things we do
Maybe that's what it...

How will I know to call?
How will I know if you're the one?
The one, the only one

Maybe that's what it takes
For me to be with you
Maybe we have to wait...

Maybe that's what it takes
For me to be with you
Maybe its our love saved

Maybe that's why it breaks
And we do the things we do

Maybe that's what it takes
