

Alex Parks, Moment

You look at me
I can see
You through
What you do to me?

Aching for you to stop
Yearning for all that you've got

Don't you break on me
I need you to stay
Right by me
Still touching

You look, I watch
But I can't reach
Want to hold your hand so desperately

Don't know who you are
And we standing
Stop

You look, I watch
But I can't reach
Want to hold your hand so desperately

Don't you break on me
I need you to stay
Right by me
Still touching
Don't leave
