

Alex Parks, Remember You

its raining on the inside, its racing out the door,
i stack up on the sand bags of time, coz' i dont wanna lose things any more, but all i did was fall into your arms one day, and forever i will pray, but i can count the times ive wished for nothing more than you,

i'll remember you,
i'll remember you,
i'd remember you,
i'll remember you.
