

Alex Parks, Sweeter And Sweeter

One touch intense as pain on my lips
You laid it bold
I am told of you
You show me
I want you
So take me

You make me sweat
My body weeps for you
Sweeter and sweeter
Trembling but still I stole my breath
And you

I fell with ease onto
Your floor you're there
Embrace me
Its like you knew

You make me sweat
My body weeps for you
Sweeter and sweeter
Trembling but still I stole my breath
And you

I listen hard
We beat the same
I realise the point of my life
I hold you so close
So close I won't let go
I don't want to

You make me sweat
My body weeps for you
Sweeter and sweeter
Trembling but still I stole my breath
And you

You make me sweat
My body weeps for you
Sweeter and sweeter
Trembling but still I stole my breath
And you
And you
And you
And you
