Yeah, let's go to the beach
I feel the breeze, my top is down
And all I do is ride around
And where I go, I just don't care
A place to chill, to get away
I take it day by day
No work or play, nowhere to stay
And I just need to clear my mind
To find my role in space and time
I'm just cruising
And I wonder if I ever find my way
I'm just cruising
Down this highway of life
And I'm looking for a place where I can hide away
Just cruising, just cruising
Two months and now, I take it slow
I'm in my flow, so I can find
The fields of joy where life is peace
Where I can safely rest my soul
The sun is glowing, winds keep blowing
I'm still growing and I try to do the best I can Go down this road, is there a plan?
I'm just cruising
(Just cruising, just cruising)
And I wonder if I ever find my way
I'm just cruising
Down this highway of life
And I'm looking for a place where I can hide away
I'm just cruising
(Just cruising, just cruising)
And I wonder if I ever find my way
I'm just cruising
Down this highway of life
And I'm looking for a place where I can hide away
