

Alex Spore, 30

It's alright i forgive you,
I couldn't be mad anyways.
It's alright there's no problem,
You like him, that's A-okay.
It's alright, i'll go away now.
I can take a hint.

It's funny how this world don't see,
You and me together.
It's funny how anyone can see this,
Except you and sometimes, me.

It's alright there's no problem.
I'll get over you eventually.
There's just one thing i gotta ask you tho,
How can i get over a goddess like you?

It's funny how this world don't see,
You and me together.
It's funny how you just don't see,
You don't see how much i care.

It's alright that you don't see,
This smile that i'm faking.
It's alright i'll go away now,
I can take a hint.
