

Alex Spore, Give You Love

I'm writing this song to you,
As i'm sittin in my room.
A song trying to tell you,
You've got just one more chance.
One more chance to make me change.
One more chance to make me stay.
And i'll change anything i know,
If i only knew, you loved me too.

I'll give you a dimond ring.
I'll give you nice clothes.
And I'll give you anything.
But most of all,
I'll give you love.

Now i'm writing this song to you,
Out of a broken heart.
But i'm not scared of anything,
As long as i got you here beside me.
So i ask this simple question of you,
Can you learn to love me,
After what i did to you?

And I'll give you a dimond ring.
I'll give you nice clothes.
And I'll give you anything.
But most of all,
I'll give you love.
