

Alex Spore, I'm Not Mad

I can't believe it's over,
After everything i said.
I can't believe my ears,
when you say:
'I need to learn to balance things,
I'll miss you everyday.'

But obviously you won't be missin me that much,
Or else you would not be,
Leavin me here.

I can't believe i've made it this long,
Without you in my life.
I can't believe i haven't moved on,
Even when you say:
'I need to learn to balance things,
I'll miss you everyday.'

Just remember these tears are all that i have,
After everything,
That we had.

I can't believe this pain,
Oh it hurts so bad.
Just to see you in the halls,
Or when i, when i hear your voice.
I wish that i could walk away.
I hope you miss me everyday.

Just remember i'm still here if ya wanna take me back,
I will, i will,
I'll still love you.

Read into these words baby.

I can't believe i was so damn klingy,
And you show no pain.
I can't believe you're doin just fine,
When i'm here i'm goin insane.
I can't believe i still love you,
I loved you when you said:
'I need to learn to balance things,
I'll miss you everyday.'

Overall i wanna thank you for behind the wall,
And everything,
That we had.
No, no i'm not mad...
