It's All Inside My Mind

Is this the beginning of the end

When two lovers can't be friends

Now that I'm feeling so unsure I gotta know

Tell me your love will always shine

And I'm so wrong so wrong this time

How do you make these feelings go I gotta know

Then you hold me close

And call my name Say to me

That nothings changed

And your hearts the same as its always been

Then you make me understand its all inside

Its all inside my mind

I'll wake to find that I've been dreaming

It's all inside my head

Better listen to what my heart is feeling

All inside all inside my mind

All inside all inside my mind

So just tell me I am wrong

When I fell I don't belong

And if I'm feeling insecure Don't let go

Cause you don't give up when I'm down

Give me time to come around

Your hearts the same as its always been

And you make me understand its all inside
