

Alexander Rybak, Dolphin

Drifting along
Where am I to go
The purpose in me
Sadly I don't know
Who'll take my hand
I'm sailing in the sand
Nothing to enjoy
Feeling quite destroyed
But I know a magic dolphin
Swimming above the world
And in my dreams it promised me
That someday I'll find my girl
No one to love
No one to lose
All by myself
This is what I choose
Lovers everywhere
Why should I even care
Will I ever change
That would sure be strange
But I know a magic dolphin
Swimming above the world
And in my dreams it promised me
That someday I'll find my girl
She has the taste of silver
Cute shiny eyes of love
And untill I find that girl of mine
I have a friend above
Yes, I have a friend above
'cause I know a magic dolphin
And in my dreams it promised me
That someday I'll find my girl
She has the taste of silver
Cute shiny eyes of love
And untill I find that girl of mine
I have a friend above
Yes, I have a friend above
