

Alexandra Burke, Ain't That Right

They're saying I've been away for too long
Cause I've been rocking alone
Taking my time watching the throne
Acting like they didn't know
Guarding my body, feeding my mind,
Giving my demons no time.

Ain't that right /2x

Name in the news but I won't sing along,
That ain't the words to my song.

Never been dropped, I hit the road
So don't worry bout who's in my home.
What's in my closet? You want to know
Nothing but shoes and these clothes.

Ain't that right /2x

I refuse to lose my mind,
On my way to better time,
I'll take my time.

Cause I'm strong,
I'll go on, I'll be fine.
I'm getting stronger,
Stressing no longer.
Yes I'll be fine, I'll be fine.

Don't call it lucky when you've done the time,
Playing it down is a crime.
I put in work, heels in the dirt,
Till I get what I deserve.
Until I get whatever's mine
I gotta shine
open the heavens and send down these angels of mine
To keep the peace in my mind.

I refuse to lose my mind,
On my way to better time,
I'll take my times.

Cause I'm strong,
I'll go on, I'll be fine.
I'm getting stronger,
Stressing no longer.
Yes I'll be fine, I'll be fine.

Ain't that right /10x
I'm getting stronger,
Stressing no longer.
I'll be fine, I'll be fine.

I refuse to lose my mind,
On my way to better time,
I'll take my time.

Cause I'm strong,
I'll go on, I'll be fine.
I'm getting stronger,
Stressing no longer.
Yes I'll be fine, I'll be fine.

I refuse to lose my mind,
On my way to paradise.
