

Alexandra Burke, For a change

You say that you will gonna give me everything
But it never came to be Cause say you need me but you you need my heal
Now you gonna heal me
You're not a taker but you surely not a giver babe
Don't think you could ever be
So now I feel I'm on a scene of a fire
Don't wanna let it burn me
The same old ticks
I should've known
Maybe the time forwards is gone is fill minors is won
And I'm so tired of waiting

CHORUS:

For a change
I need a little line in the rain
I'm sick of dreaming about one day
Maybe I'll make it
Cause I believe this time for a change
Gotta find a new uncle babe
Instead of looking for something to say
Wait a minute, two
Wanna try the truth for a change
For a change
I've done all of the answer in the light of day
But that's nothing there to see
Always I twisted little trying of what you say
You gotta learn of talk to me
You have a lusting
But a cost it coming everyday
I may need no company
The same excuse
I should've know
Maybe of held I fall to know
Under my skin
Something is on And I'm so tired of waiting

CHORUS:

For a change
I need a little line in the rain
I'm sick of dreaming about one day
Maybe I'll make it
Cause I believe this time for a change
Gotta find a new uncle babe
Instead of looking for something to say
Wait a minute, two
Wanna try the truth for a change
For a change
What I would give to see each other
If nothing else
But it comes the time when I gotta look into myself

CHORUS:

For a change
I'm sick of dreaming about one day
Maybe I'll make it
Cause I believe this time for a change
Gotta find a new uncle babe
Instead of looking for something to say
Wait a minute, two
Wanna try the truth for a change
I need something new for Wanna try the truth
For a change
For a change
